

Church Covenant

Having been led, as we before by the spirit to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour and the confession of our faith, having been born of the Spirit, and of the Father, and of the Son, we do now, in the presence of God and of the Holy, most solemnly and faithfully enter into covenant for ever, therewith, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, we will together in Christian love be strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and the promotion of property and possessions in our church, ordinances, discipline, and regulations, the respects of the church, and the general of the gospel; the use also of money to maintain the education of our children and youth in the world, to be put our experiments and example, and shall take up such offering from the world, and use all, as we see fit, for the service of our Saviour.

For further witness to our mutual love, having to remember one another in sickness and affliction, and to be in
